

CURRICULUM ADOPTION

Statement of Purpose

It is the policy of the School Board that no basic course of study shall be eliminated nor new courses added without the approval of the School Board, nor shall any significant alteration or reduction of the course of study be made without such approval.

Statement of Policy

New academic programs, curriculum changes or curriculum renewals shall not be acted upon by the School until the next meeting in order to allow time for public comment and time for the School Board to review the proposed curriculum or program.

Overview of Curriculum Instruction and Assessment Work (IGD-EA) and School Board Evaluation of New Curriculum or Implementation (IGD-EB) exhibits are related to this policy for yearly use.
