Greetings Sanborn Community,

We hope you all managed to stay warm during Friday's snow day. You may have noticed that we changed the look and function of the newsletter. In an effort to streamline communication, and do our best to make sure important dates and events are not missed, there is a table at the bottom with links to relay information from departments and organizations.

There is a lot going on this month including the professional development day on the 27th, and the rescheduled academic awards night on the 30th. There will be class meetings the week of January 30th as well to discuss the exciting week of Winter Carnival, the course selection process, and some details around prom for juniors and seniors, and SAT's for Juniors.

Planning for the winter formal is well underway. Please note the date has been changed to Friday, February 17th. Dr. Dawson was able to reschedule athletic events for that evening. We are looking forward to a great event.

Yours Always,

Jennifer Michitson, Dr. Robert Dawson, Nichole O'Brien, Heidi Leavitt, and Timothy Westphal

Club, Organization, and Classroom Happenings: Passing on Positivity!

Recently the Youth in Action club decided that everyone could use some positivity, and created an opportunity for all students to both share a message of positivity with their peers, but also receive a positivity pep talk! This banner serves to remind us all that it doesn't take much to help us feel encouraged, empowered, and energized.

We may not always realize it, but we all play a part in one another's day-to-day happiness. We were reminded of what would happen if all of us did everything we could to help each person we encounter have a good day!

Keep passing on the positivity this month. Think about how often we make the effort to help make our part of the world a better, happier place. How often do you greet people you pass in public? Is there someone who you think needs a compliment or a smile? These small things are reciprocal, meaning that the more we do them, the better both sides will feel. Pass on some positivity and reap benefits!

Student Field Trip to the New Hampshire Supreme Court

On Wednesday, January 18th students from Ms. Harvey's "Your Government, Your Money" Honors class attended a field trip to the NH Supreme Court with NH Civic's "Civics 603" Program. The students worked with a number of current and retired lawyers and Court Clerks to learn more about the court system, constitutional issues and the importance of precedent in the courts.

Over the course of a week, students developed arguments related to the 4th Amendment case, N.J v TLO. They presented their arguments in front of a panel of "judges" and then were asked to answer questions related to the case before learning the results of the original ruling.

A special thank you to Mrs. Boisvert and Mr. Croteau for accompanying the students!
